■ EXECUTIVE MESSAGE:

Dear Second Harvest Community,

What a year it has been! In July we completed improvements to our Watsonville facility that will enable us to work more efficiently toward ending hunger and malnutrition in Santa Cruz County.

Our community came together to make the new facility a reality.

Your generous support provided the means to modernize our facility to include highly efficient food sorting and agency distribution areas, solar powered cooler and freezer storage, pallet racks, loading docks, and much more. The cooler alone is allowing us to accept an additional 40,000 pounds a week of farm-fresh produce.

With the increased dexterity the new warehouse affords us, we are better able to sort, store and distribute the large volume of healthy food that flows through our warehouse. On any given day, we have between 800,000 and 900,000 pounds in inventory that is distributed through 200 local agencies and programs serving 55,000 Santa Cruz County residents each month.

Proper nutrition in childhood is critical.

We are convinced that providing healthy food is key to addressing the current epidemic of obesity and chronic diseases, which are particularly alarming when it comes to children. Nutritious food—with a focus on fresh fruits and vegetables—will help them to be successful in school and in life.

We encourage you to get involved:

- Organize friends, neighbors, and co-workers to hold a food drive or event
- Donate produce from your garden
- Advocate for better food in schools

Every action and every dollar makes a difference. For more ways to help, visit www.thefoodbank.org.

Our strategy of education, outreach and involvement is working even better than we imagined. Our clients want to give back and take a proactive role in making their lives and their communities better. Over the coming year, we will continue to grow successful programs such as Passion For Produce and Food For Children, that combine nutrition education with committed volunteerism.

With the power of healthy food, education, and outreach, we are moving forward together.

You made it possible, and for that we are sincerely thankful.

Yours truly,

Jeremy & Willy

■ AGENCY PROFILES :

Santa Cruz Agape Manna :

Santa Cruz Revival Associate Pastor Karen Barton (pictured here) is a volunteer in Agape Manna's many ministries. Along with Pastor Ron Scadina, they serve Santa Cruz county residents in need, with emphasis on serving the homeless. Santa Cruz Agape Manna is a Second Harvest member agency that distributes food through weekly snack programs, a mobile food pantry, and collaborative meals with other local service and faith organizations. They typically serve several hundred individuals each week.

Inner Light Pantry :

The food pantry at Soquel's Inner Light Ministries provides fresh produce and bread to at least 160 families each week. Dave Francis directs a team of 10 or more volunteers who are both members and non-members of the church.

"Our prosperity comes not from ourselves as individuals, but from our family and friends. Without our community, we can't function. We are thankful for everything the people in line have given to us, and our service is here to pay them back."

Circle Church Soup Kitchen :

The Circle Church Soup Kitchen serves free hot meals to 50-75 community members in need each week. The Kitchen is completely staffed by volunteers, who prepare all their own meals. They strive to create a warm and homey atmosphere with an emphasis on fresh, healthful foods. They also distribute fresh produce and non-perishable items for clients to use later. "Over my time volunteering here, I have seen lives transformed," said Mary Mulford. "I have personally witnessed people and families who have gone from desperation, addiction, homelessness, and personal trauma to become working members of our community, some of whom now volunteer here at our kitchen."

2011 Hunger Fighters of the Year :

Jolly Bilstad and Midge Morrison have cooked meals for the homeless for over 20 years at the United Presbyterian Church. "This is our justice," says Jolly.

■ AGENCIES & PROGRAMS :

“A lack of food is just like the absence of love or money - it is not a question of inadequate supply, but a problem of distribution. We can choose to ensure that everyone has enough.”
